Coming Soon

Django

Director: Etienne Comar

Cast: Reda Kateb, Cécile de France

Production year: 2017

Running Time: 117 mins

Synopsis: 1943, occupied Paris. Django Reinhardt (Reda Kateb) is at the pinnacle of his art. The brilliant and carefree jazz guitarist, king of ethereal swing, plays to standing-room-only crowds in the capital's greatest venues. Thrilling audiences with his distinctive brand of "hot jazz," he's charming his admirers, including his muse Louise (Cécile de France). Meanwhile, his gypsy brethren are being persecuted throughout Europe. His life takes a turn for the worse when the Nazi propaganda machine wants to send him on tour in Germany... But even as the rise in Nazism forces him to make a daring escape from Paris – his music being considered degenerate under the Third Reich – he refuses to be silenced, and his music becomes a form of protest.

Opens in New York on January 5th and Los Angeles on January 19th, 2018.

Opens on Itunes, Google Play, Microsoft, Amazon and more digital platforms on February 6th, 2018.
