Alliance Française is the largest and oldest network of French language and cultural centers in the world. It was founded in 1883 in Paris, France. The Alliance Française chapters across the world are dedicated to promoting French language and francophone culture in order to foster relationships between people of all nationalities, ethnicity, and backgrounds. Alliance Française of Washington, D.C. is one of the 850 chapters in the world, and one of 114 chapters in the US. The American network of Alliance Française chapters is the most important of all the Alliance Française's networks.

Sneak Peek at some of the Highlights of the Trip!

Treasure Hunt! To extend the language skills learned in the lessons, guests will participate in a fun Treasure Hunt around a Parisian neighborhood. Not only will they learn more about the neighborhood, but this will be their opportunity to engage with French speakers to gain their confidence in conversing.

A Culinary Day with our friends at La Cuisine Cooking School! The group will enjoy a visit to one of the alluring food markets in Paris, learning all about the gorgeous products from the lively vendors with a professional chef guiding us through the winding market. Here, our guests may use their language skills to converse with the merchants! Then, we will participate in a private cooking class just for us at the outstanding La Cuisine Cooking School that overlooks the Seine. We will enjoy the fruits of our labor as the class ends with a sit-down lunch for all.

A Day in Champagne!

Depart the hotel in the morning by private coach to the Champagne region with champagne expert Cynthia Coutu. In Champagne, our guests will visit a large house, a charming small house, have an idyllic lunch and will visit Reims cathedral. With Cynthia's deep knowledge of all things bubbly, our guests will learn so much about everyone's favorite celebratory beverage.

Wine Education Class with Thierry Givone! In his cute-as-a-button wine shop in the Latin Quarter, wine expert Thierry Givone will give our guests his passion for all things grape. They will sample 6 different wines and it will be a perfect follow up to our day with Cynthia in Champagne. Cheese platters featuring some of France's most prized cheeses will be provided.
